EXMOOR NEWS DULVERTON & SOUTHERN EXMOOR Christmas is coming, the goose is getting fat....

We've got Xmas happy and given Buster Brown a hat....(p31) :-) For a bit of fun, can you work out the place names on our cover? Just to let you know, we will be raising the cost of our ads for the March/ April 2018 issue onwards by approx. 8-10%. Any ads booked and paid for before the change will be charged at the old rate. To compensate, we have increased the print run to 2,800 and to over 300 unique visitors to our website per month... and this is rising. This represents over 30% increase in circulation. We have also included colour throughout which makes the magazine easier to read. Each issue is uploaded to our website www.exmoornews.co.uk/exmoor-news-copies.

At Exmoor News we appreciate the very kind people who deliver our magazine and we are extremely grateful. A huge thank you to everyone. As ever please let our advertisers know you found them in our magazine

Best wishes, Ceri Keene and Claire Savill

DULVERTON DANCE is changing!

Having taken a summer break – the first in 8 years – the group is to launch 'Gentle Movement to Music'. Aimed at all adults, there is a specially warm welcome for people with disabilities - physical, visual, emotional and mental. Starting on 10th October at Dulverton Town Hall, the purpose is to improve mobility, strength, balance, relaxation and memory.

The whole session can be performed sitting down. Chairs can also be used to support standing movements, many of which can be practised sitting in front of the TV, twitching to the music of the ads, or waiting for the kettle to boil. For people who are already quite fit we can offer floor work, Callenetics and simple yoga, plus opportunities to travel fast in the wide space. A regular weigh-in could be provided and opportunities for sharing ideas about food and activity.

Led by Nicola Smith, supported by Marion Silverlock, the group has recently attracted funding from Comic Relief and the Police Community Trust.

Weekly drop-in charges are  $\pm 5$ , or  $\pm 40$  for 10 consecutive weeks. Age range: 18 - 90+.

Dulverton Town Hall, every Tuesday 11-12 noon. There is an excellent lift. Tea, coffee and water available.

EXMOOR NEWS

Three actors new to the Dulverton Players have joined the popular Exmoor company for its production of "Allo 'Allo", the stage version of the cult BBC comedy classic.

Set in a café in Occupied France during the Second World War, owner Rene Artois struggles with the conflicting demands of his wife, Edith, the local Resistance fighters, and the garrison of German troops. Kerrie Jones plays Yvette, one of the waitresses with whom Rene finds consolation while Sarah Ward is Michelle, leader of the Resistance fighters. Dave Bannister appears as Alberto, the Italian officer with the wandering hands.

"'Allo 'Allo" stars Ryun Smallbone as the hapless Rene. Ryun is also directing the production, and Dulverton theatre goers will remember him for his recent leading roles in "Habeas Corpus" and "Ghost Writer".

Where is the priceless portrait of the Fallen Madonna with the big boobies? What is the bewildering collection of knockwurst sausages really hiding? All will be revealed in this hilarious farce.

"'Allo 'Allo" will run at the Town Hall from Wednesday, 15th November until Saturday, 18th November.

Tickets are available from Dulverton Post Office Tel 01398 323474.

Exmoor Rotary Jazz Brushford Parish Hall 11th November 2017

At our next session on 11 November, we welcome The Sopranos who will feature an evening of trad jazz based upon the work of many famous leaders:- Sydney Bechet, Jimmy Noone and Johnny Dodds and the repertoire of artists as diverse as Ellington, King Oliver, Gershwin and Arlo Guthrie. Standard tunes from Dixieland and the New Orleans traditions will combine with early 20th century dance band numbers to provide a varied programme.

Due to cost pressures, I am sorry to say the ticket will have to increase to £12.00 (as well as those booked on line) and £14.00 on the night at the door. Email us to book if you do not buy tickets giving name and telephone number - all we ask is that you cancel if that becomes necessary.

Tickets will be available from mid October at Tantivy and the Post Office in Dulverton and the Fruit and Vegetable shop in Bampton. Please support us and you will add to the nearly £2000 we have donated from jazz in the past year. WE LOOK FORWARD TO WELCOMING YOU.

Simonsbath Festival 2018

Plans for Simonsbath Festival 2018 are well underway so any feedback on this year's festival, suggestions for next year and offers of help would be most welcome. In particular, we are looking for technical support with the PA system at St Luke's and also for someone who might help with selling advertising in the Simonsbath Festival programme.

There are always plenty of practical jobs to do during the festival period too, so general offers of help would be greatly appreciated. Please email director@simonsbathfestival.org or telephone Victoria on 01643 831343 for a chat if you are interested.

Simonsbath Festival 2017 lived up to its promise of being the biggest and best festival yet. Attendance was up on last year which, along with additional fund-raising efforts, means that the accounts are looking rosy too, making budgeting for next year's festival easier.

Food, wine and ice cream sales were also up!

Huge thanks to the growing number of Friends, volunteers and all those who supported the festival this year.

If you're not already a Friend of Simonsbath Festival but would like to become one please email Polly Soltau at friends@ simonsbathfestival.org.uk.

Frizz and Freckles dolls raise money for charity

Handcrafted sculpted cloth dolls, handmade near Wiveliscombe are doing their part to raise money for local charities, so far over £1,100.00. We asked the dolls for their comments but they are too modest!

Each doll takes about 20 hours to complete and they are totally unique with their own personalities. They are not toys, so are not suitable for small children. However, some have been purchased as Christening gifts and to be kept as heirlooms.

Sue has a number of dolls in stock and takes commissions. Sue Knowles – Frizz & Freckles (Tel: 01823 400609 or 07880 702608) or (email sueknowles14@ btinternet.com)

WORLD WAR 1 CENTENARY COMMEMORATIONS

Edwin James Chilcott

Edwin James was born in 1887 at Westcott Farm, Oakford and was the eldest son of Edwin, who was an Agricultural Worker, and Emma.

Edwin James' father died in 1896, just 33 years old. By 1901 Edwin was living with his mother, brothers Frank, Fred, John, Tom and William and his sisters Eveline and Amy at 8 Castle Court Dulverton.

In 1911 his mother and five of his siblings were still living at Castle Court but Edwin was working as a Servant for the Bertrams, Edmund and Susan and six children, at Yeo Mill.

He joined the Devonshire Regiment in October 1916, was posted to Egypt, landing at Suez on 4th April 1917 and was killed in action on 23rd November 1917. His gravestone is in the Jerusalem War Cemetery. We are fortunate to have in the Heritage Centre, on show in the WW1 commemoration display, Edwin's Memorial Plaque (otherwise known as a Dead Man's Penny) kindly given to me by Percy German, Edwin's great nephew.

Around 1,355,000 of these Plaques were sent out during the First World War with supporting letters.

EXMOOR NEWS

500 people took to the water at The Inaugural Exmoor Open Water Swim at Wimbleball Lake. In this first event ever of its kind at Wimbleball, the weather played ball as more women than men swam the single loop lap of this magnificent reservoir.

Mike Morris Event director says: 'Open Water swimming is a massive growth activity and it is so great to see kids aged 12 swimming with 70 year olds – we are so grateful for South West Lakes Trust to allow us to put on the event.'

Top GB athletes competed in an Elite Wave followed by the rest of the entrants who were a mixed lot of seasoned open water swimmers and first timers. Entrants could choose between the 2km and 4km course and about 50 kayakers from Bideford and Exmoor Canoe Clubs plus 5 safety boats ensured that all entrants were well looked after.

A big thanks to all. Exmoor Open Water swim in association with The Pickwell Trust will take Place on 29/09/18. With on line entries soon to be available at www.exmoorswim.co.uk

DULVERTON STARLIGHT Sunday 3rd December Entertainment starting at 2pm Shops open Exmoor street market Santa's grotto Church bazaar Dulverton Model Railway Fire Juggler Face painting Donkey rides Carol singing, Brass Band Fireworks

Join us to celebrate our wonderful town of Dulverton on Sunday 3rd December to start your festive season. The Winter Market will start from 1.30pm this year and has a new area in Stanbury's parking plot by the Fire Station as well as the stalls in Fore Street. Donkey rides will be in Banks Square from 1.30pm with the arrival of Father Christmas and South Molton Brass Band starting the entertainment on the main stage at 2pm. All Saints Church are hosting their annual Bazaar from 2-5pm with lots of crafts and goodies. Make sure you come and watch the Fire Brigade demonstrate chopping the roof of a car and see The West Country Blacksmiths create wonderful metal works in their forge. After dark the town sparkles with fairy lights, the spectacular fireworks display and our rocking local band!

Please remember that Fore Street will be completely closed from 10am to 10pm on the day for the event.

Keep up to date with who will be there, entertainment schedule and times on our website and Facebook. www.dulvertonbystarlight.co.uk

FOUNDATION

100% Bursary Places at West Buckland School

Year 7 to Year 11 & Sixth Form

West Buckland School Foundation is offering children entering at Year 7 in September 2018 the opportunity to attend West Buckland School through to the end of Year 11. We also offer students entering Year 12 the opportunity to attend West Buckland Sixth Form.

We like to make these awards to students who will truly benefit from what West Buckland School can offer in pastoral care and academic teaching. We are looking for children who for whatever reason will derive a special benefit from a West Buckland education.

We want to make a life-changing difference.

These fully funded, 100% bursaries are means-tested and will be awarded based on financial need.

The Fortescue-Bristow Bursary is a specific bursary available to a child whose main family income is derived from the rural economy.

Applicants will be required to sit an entrance assessment (for a Year 7 place) or an academic interview (for a Sixth Form place) in January 2018.

The deadline for applications is Monday 20th November 2017.

For further details or an application pack please contact the Foundation Office:

A DOG'S DAY OUT

Le Grand Tour

My Buddy's live-in secretary has arrived. Oh yeah. Big brown eyes, long eyelashes and a smile that reaches her ears. Boy, is he pleased. They're upstairs practising forward 2 somersaults in the pike position, arm stand reverse in the tuck position with a single leg take down, arm drag and bear hug. I warned him that live-in secretaries could be dangerous and this one doesn't even speak English. She's Mexican! How's she going to make notes? He's not listening of course. He says she's a honey.

My despair did not go unnoticed. "Let them settle down Buster" she suggested. "I'm going up country for a few days, why don't you come with me". Okay, I suppose. It's the only way I'm going to get the next column written and there's not going to be much reporting coming from them! She put my bowl in a bag and drove to Tiverton Parkway.

I'd never been on a train before. Up to 3 dogs can travel free, the ticket office said. (God forbid!) She sat in a reserved seat and I laid on the reserved floor. A nice man looked over and asked my name. "I had a Buster too" he replied. I told him it was a popular name and I had recently wrote about the Top 10 names in my column for the Exmoor News. "You've got an intelligent face", he replied. "Enjoy your blog", he said as he got up to leave. Blog? Was something about to be wheeled up on the refreshment trolley? I sat on her lap, looked out the window and fell asleep.

Family and friends met us when we arrived and, hev, I've been here before. This is where I had to sleep in the boot room (with the underfloor heating). Luckily they had another guest staying, Ricky, as his owners had gone on holiday; so not enough space in there this time. Pick of the house for me - kitchen armchair - beanie bag in the playroom... The next day was sunny again and the plan - the pub for lunch. Children can ride the ponies and we can walk there and back. "How far is it Lasked?" About 5 miles came the reply but you can take Polly's buggy Buster with our necessities and we can push you when you get tired. It was very hot and I gratefully took advantage of the offer. It was an interesting excursion passing through gateways with huge mythological figures perched on top and an old iron railway bridge that echoed as we rode over it. We took lots of pictures. Buddy and his honey messaged to say that they had been for a walk by the coast and were now sitting in the back of a car watching the swallows flying in circles. (Yuck). The next day we made a picnic and took ponies to a show. I took refuge in the trailer (too many hooves flying around) and shared a water bucket with a Shetland called Angus and wondered how my buddy and his honey were getting on.

or training to get ahead!

All too soon we were back on the train heading home and I was about to find out. As we drove down the hill into the village, I couldn't wait to see my bed again and yes, there they both were, waiting to show me their demonstration of an advanced complete 360 degree rotation with a full twist.

NEWS FROM EXMOOR NATIONAL PARK

New Exmoor Awareness training programme for tourism providers unveiled a new training programme support tourism businesses in to making the most of their connections with Exmoor National Park has been launched. The programme will be repeated at different locations, with the first sessions being offered at Dunster National Park Centre on the 7th and 14th November 2017

Building on the previous Fxmoor Awareness courses, the revised programme consists of three days, which can be taken as a collective or individually to suit specific business needs. The programme introduces businesses to what makes the area so special and supports them in developing their offer. The aim is to help businesses to achieve the maximum benefit from their association with the National Park and to keep them updated with all the latest news and information. The courses will be led by specialist staff and ranges from the National Park, alongside tourism professionals.

-Session 1 - Moor Discovery will introduce businesses to the National Park, its management and its special qualities such as its landscape, wildlife and cultural heritage and provide top tips and links to resources to help their guests enjoy the area. It is particularly suited to new businesses or those that want to gain a better understanding of what makes Exmoor special.

· Session 2 - Moor Connections is an interactive day to help improve tourism business skills and increase confidence, knowledge and understanding of the National Park. It aims to enable businesses to benefit fully from their association with the National Park through developing concepts such as experiential tourism.

 Session 3 - Moor Update - A spring ( update day suitable for all businesses to learn about the latest initiatives and goings on within Exmoor and an optional field trip.

"Tourism is the mainstay of our economy and we benefit tremendously from being a National Park," said Dan James, Sustainable Economy Manager at Exmoor National Park. "National Parks are internationally recognised as some of the best natural attractions and through this programme, we want to forge stronger links with the businesses based in and around the National Park to support them in developing their offer.

"We're excited to be able to work alongside businesses to unpack and utilise the resources available to them to increase visitor numbers and satisfaction."

Session 1 is at the National Park Centre in Dunster from 11am to 4pm on Tuesday 7 November and Session 2 on Tuesday 14 November, at the same place and time.

Each session costs just £15 per person (or £25 per person for both sessions 1 and 2) including all course materials and a local produce lunch. Places must be booked in advance via http://www. exmoor-nationalpark.gov.uk/living-andworking/info-for-tourism-providers/ events-and-training. For further details please contact Katrina Munro on 01398 323665.

BRITISH ALPACA TEXTILE AND KNITWEAR DESIGN STUDIO AT WEEKFIELD FARM

The British Alpaca Fashion Company (see p47) has set up a new textile and knitwear design studio in Exmoor at Weekfield Farm. The studio owned by David & amp; Anila Preston is a mecca for design students and designers who pursue ethically sourced products which are totally sustainable. The alpacas on the farm roam in pesticide-free fields and take shelter at night in spacious barns to keep their low micron count fibre clean and soft.

The company offers a bespoke design service to local shops who would like to develop a small collection of their own in Exmoor at competitive for their customers using British alpaca sourced locally and made in Dulverton not China or India. British Alpaca is often blended with linen, silk, cotton or wool to create exciting and innovative designs.

This design studio offers a design consultancy service – from paper to knit. All you need is an idea and the team at Weekfield will create your product in your style. Bespoke knitwear from yarns which are truly British.

Scott picks up a McCoy ahead of the new season

The Exmoor-based trainer picked up the award at the inaugural The McCoys, a star-studded awards ceremony held at Cheltenham Racecourse recently to celebrate the achievements of owners, trainers, jockeys, stable staff and horses running at Cheltenham, Warwick, Wincanton and Exeter during the 2016-2017 season.

Jeremy Scott said: "This occasion is wonderful, because it brings a lot of people together, and it really is a team effort, from trainers, to staff, jockeys and owners.

"An event like this crystallises thoughts about how important everybody's role is in racing. My award has been gained simply because we ran a lot of horses at tracks in the area, albeit we were narrowly beaten for the small trainers' title [won by Nick Williams], but there is nothing like having runners at your local tracks.

"You are rewarded when you do, and the prize we have been given [the use of a box at Cheltenham] has blown me away. We were given an interim prize of a lunch table during The Festival, and had a blast that day, and now the box. We will enjoy it very much - now all we need is a first winner at The Festival, and we have some very nice young stores which give us hope."

The former dairy farmer, who is now in his tenth season as a licensed trainer, cuts an enduringly popular figure up and down the country as he plies his training talents on the racecourse, more often than not adding prize money to the coffers of his owners, last year some £200,000.

But last season was overshadowed by his daughter Laura's serious riding accident and winning the award, he says, is thanks in no small part to the support and kindness of his friends. "Laura suffered an incomplete spinal cord injury to her neck which entailed several months at Salisbury Spinal Unit followed by rehabilitation at Oaksey House. It was a very tough time for us all and it's thanks to all the people and our staff who rallied round so that we could visit Laura. From helping with the lambing, to going racing, to filling the freezer with food, there were so many people who helped us, and this award is dedicated to them," he explained.

Laura is now well on the way to a full recovery and is the yard's new head girl, having taken over the role from Lauran Warren who has left to pursue a new career. She works closely alongside her mother Camilla who plays a pivotal with the training of the horses and is credited with the day-to-day husbandry.

Jeremy Scott

With the autumn/winter jump season on the cusp of opening the throttle, its full steam ahead for team Scott which starts the season with a full yard and the next tier of youngsters waiting in the wings. The string is headed by the everpopular Melodic Rendezvous, a flag bearer for the yard, whose Grade One victory in the Tolworth Hurdle in 2013 put them on the map. He's a gorgeous stamp of a horse, solid and strong who draws admiring glances whether he wins or loses and he'll continue to run in the better handicap hurdle races.

Plenty of novice chasers fill the ranks, headed by the very smart mare Ellen's Way who returns from injury to contest a strong pattern of mares' Anymaythingmayhapen, races. Beau Phil, Colmers Hill, Comragh, Pulling Power, Seeanythingyoulike, Speedalong, That's Gonna Sting and Tikkinbox will all be tried over the bigger obstacles, with improvement likely to come. "If you give a horse time to mature, often you are rewarded, and while some of these might have looked disappointing in their first season over hurdles, with another summer on their backs and a bit more experience, they should go on to reach their potential," said Scott.

Hurdlers include the dual purpose Unison, who is as good on the Flat as he is over hurdles and Zulu Oscar who ran a credible seventh on the Swinton Hurdle, and there is plenty of fresh young talent that will begin in bumper races.

"We're very much looking forward to a successful season ahead without too many dramas we hope" said Scott.
